About the Journal

Annals of the National Association of Geographers, India (ISSN: 0970-972X) is a national journal (UGC-CARE Listed) that publishes on all matters concerning the study of geography and allied disciplines. The journal provides a medium for the wide dissemination of original papers discussing various implications connected with geography from many points of view including international, political, environmental, economic, social, medical, managerial, planning, scientific, and engineering aspects. NAGI is the only national body of Geographers of the country and presently it has more than 2600 life members. It was established in 1978 with its headquarters in the Department of Geography, Delhi School of Economics, University of Delhi. Every year the Association organizes the Indian Geography Congress in different universities of India. Apart from the Indian Geography Congress, the Association also organized International Geography Congress.
