About the Author

Max Brand

Max Brand, the pen name of Frederick Schiller Faust (1892–1944), was a prolific American author best known for his Western novels, though he also wrote in other genres. A Sagebrush Cinderella is one of his Western tales, capturing themes of adventure and romance set against rugged, frontier landscapes. Brand’s vivid storytelling and memorable characters made him a major figure in popular fiction. Despite his passing during World War II, his works remain iconic in American Western literature.

Product Description

A Sagebrush Cinderella by Max Brand is a Western romance about a young woman in the rugged frontier, struggling against adversity and harsh circumstances. The novel follows her journey of self-discovery, love, and redemption, highlighting themes of virtue, strength, and transformation. As she navigates the challenges of the Wild West, she finds hope and empowerment. With vivid characters and a compelling plot, the book captures the spirit of perseverance and the enduring power of love in a tough world.
