Product Description

The Knowledge of the Holy is a devotional classic that delves into the nature and attributes of God. A.W. Tozer wrote this book to address what he perceived as a diminishing view of God within the modern church. He believed that a low view of God leads to a lack of reverence and spiritual vitality, and his writings aim to correct this by presenting a biblical understanding of who God is. Tozer's writing is marked by a deep sense of devotion and passion for God. The "knowledge of the holy" refers to diverse understandings of divine knowledge and spiritual wisdom across various religions.
