About the Author

Arthur Conan Doyle

Sir Arthur Conan Doyle was a British author and physician best known for creating the iconic detective Sherlock Holmes. Born in Edinburgh, Scotland, he studied medicine and practiced as a doctor while writing fiction. His first Holmes story, A Study in Scarlet, was published in 1887. Over his career, Conan Doyle wrote numerous novels, short stories, and plays, blending genres like mystery, science fiction, and historical fiction. His Last Bow is one of his notable collections featuring Sherlock Holmes.

Product Description

The Hound of the Baskervilles by Arthur Conan Doyle is a famous Sherlock Holmes novel featuring Holmes and Dr. Watson. Set on the eerie Devonshire moors, it centers on a legendary supernatural hound threatening the Baskerville family. Investigating Sir Charles Baskerville's death and Sir Henry's danger, the story blends mystery, suspense, and gothic horror. Exploring fear, superstition, and rational deduction, its atmospheric setting and gripping plot make it a classic and enduring work of detective fiction.
