Product Description

The Story of Khajuraho' is a new work on Khajuraho, a world heritage site, tracing the legendary and mystic story of union between Hemawati and the Moon. This gives the background of ideology behind the construction of the temples and approach towards erotic panels at Khajuraho. The book provides an integrated view of sculpture through four leading temples i.e. Lakshmana temple, Viswanath temple, Parshvanath temple and Kandariya Mahadeva temple. The book will be welcomed by every visitor to Khajuraho and others who want to peep into the Indian ethos and culture
