Product Description

The Picture of Dorian Gray is a novel about a handsome young man named Dorian Gray who wishes that his portrait would age instead of him. His wish mysteriously comes true, and while he remains young and attractive, the portrait grows older and uglier as he commits sinful and immoral acts. The story explores themes of beauty, vanity, temptation, and the consequences of a corrupt life. It also shows how the pursuit of pleasure without responsibility can destroy a person's soul and character.
