About the Journal

Bharat Journal of Case Studies is a premier platform for insightful case studies, fostering knowledge exchange across diverse disciplines. It provides a platform for scholars, academicians, and practitioners to explore the complexities and success of real-world scenarios across a vast spectrum of disciplines. Case studies offer an invaluable lens through which one can examine critical issues, dissect solutions, and accumulate practical insights applicable to various fields. This journal transcends the limitations of traditional academic discourse by embracing the richness of diverse case studies. This journal covers a wide range of disciplines like public policy, governance, environment, management, etc. In this journal you will find different experiences of the protagonist, each one meticulously woven to elucidate a specific challenge, opportunity, or transformation. We invite you to engage with the successes and tribulations documented in these case studies, fostering critical thinking and problem-solving skills that can be readily applied to your own endeavours. Bharat Journal of Case Studies is a new journal of the Indian Institute of Public Administration. The first edition of the journal was released by the Hon'ble Vice President of India and President of IIPA, Shri Jagdeep Dhankhar, during the 70th Founders' Day event of IIPA on March 29, 2024.
