Product Description

Ulysses by James Joyce, is a modernist masterpiece that takes place over the course of a single day—June 16, 1904—in Dublin. The novel follows Leopold Bloom, Stephen Dedalus, and Molly Bloom as they navigate the complexities of life, identity, and human consciousness. Through experimental narrative techniques, such as stream-of-consciousness and symbolic references to Homer's Odyssey, Joyce explores themes of time, memory, and self-discovery, making Ulysses a ground breaking work in literature.
